The Circus has come to town.

Fitzgibbon's Circus is in town, ready to delight audiences with their 'Fantastical Feast of Fun Show'. Unfortunately, at the last rehearsal before opening night, disaster strikes when Paulo Orsini falls to his death from the trapeze. An investigation shows some foul play is at hand as someone has lubricated the catch bar. But who stood to gain by his death? Tonight that's down to you and Detective Inspector Appleby to figure out. After all, life at the circus is never quite as it seems....

The time is ticking to solve the crime. Assemble your Detective teams and join Moonstone Theatre London & Hatfield House for an evening of suspicious suspects, plot-twists and plenty of red herrings along the way! Roll up and take your seats, donning your ringmasters hat or gymnast spandex to dress for the occasion. Evening includes a 3 course meal and drink upon arrival.
